In this live we talk about the Hayu Marca gate or the 'Gate of the Gods', what it really was and who built it. We also talked about elongated skulls.

LIVE WITH CRISTINA & ESTEL·LA

Estel·la.- Hello everyone. Welcome to Pleiadian Knowledge.

Cristina.- Today we have prepared information from Yázhi Swarúu about the door of Hayu Marca, also known as the door of the gods in Peru. We will also talk a little about Homo Capensis.

THE DOOR OF THE GODS AND HOMO CAPENSIS

Cristina.- The door of the gods or Hayu Marca door, for those people who do not know what it is, I imagine that it is, because it is a quite important or quite famous monument especially in the world of mystery, the door is called Aramu Muru, and it is located in the Hayu Marca mountains in Peru, near the city of Puno and in the vicinity of Lake Titicaca, you already know that this lake has a lot of mystery too, apart from the fact that it has ruins of a (submerged) city inside from the lake. Before starting with the information from Yázhi, I tell you that this famous stone door has many legends and the natives of the area say that it is the door to the land of the gods. There are many legends that say that one day it will open and that the creator gods of humanity will return. Also, they say that many people, or many heroes crossed this door in the past to this land of the gods, and once they crossed this door they enjoyed a prosperous and glorious immortal life. Also, there is a well-known legend during the time of the Spanish conquest about an Inca priest named Amaru Muru from the Temple of the Seven Rays, who fled from his temple with a sacred disc known as the key to the gods of the Seven Rays. This priest hid in the mountains of Hayu, fearing that the Spanish would take this key from him. He hid to protect himself from the Spanish who came there. Later this priest came to the door of the gods, to this door of Hayu Marca, and showed this key to several priests or shamans in the area, and after they performed a ritual it is said that this door was opened with a kind of blue light or blue halo that came out of it and the priest Amaru Muru gave the golden disk to one of the shamans, and he entered this door and was never seen again. If you have seen the documentaries: "Ancient Aliens," there are some researchers who say that a kind of circular depression has been found on the door that is next to the door, where it is believed that some object in the shape of a small disk. So there are many stories about this door. We were very interested. Let's start with the questions we asked Yázhi about this.

Estel-la.- As Cristina has commented before, this information is from Yázhi. It's a conversation we had with her. We asked her: Do you know what the door of Hayu Marca or the Door of the Gods in Peru was?

She answered: "Yes, it is the one carved out of rock. When portals are being used to enter the Earth from wherever, sometimes, it already remains as a preferential place because of the energy of the place, Planetary Ley lines that make a portal more efficient and stable. So, such a door is restored or made to indicate such a place. But this is more than anything from the point of view of the local people because technologically it is not necessary. But, in short, that door is a portal, exit and entrance. Before it was very much in use. So much traffic of people passing by that they even ended up making a door in the rock to mark the exact place. There is no reason why it should not open again today. So it at least has active potential."

We asked her : And by what races was the portal mainly used at that time?

And Yázhi told us: "The Homo Capensis, or Elohi, were considered gods for that region. They are descendants of the star Asterope in M45 in the Pleiades."

Cristina asked her: Who built that door? Was it the Elohi?

Yázhi told us: "The technology there indicates that it was not sculpted by villagers. I do not have the specific data, but the most probable, overwhelmingly more probable, is that it was the Elohi."

Cristina.- Here we ask: So, this was after Atlantis?

And Yázhi answers us: "Most likely it was contemporary to Atlantis. As a general rule, all these constructions are much older than what terrestrial science calculates."

And here we ask her: Did the Elohi collaborate with the Atlanteans or were they independent?

Yázhi said: "Yes, probably, and they interacted because Atlantis was cosmopolitan with many races and a lot of politics there. Sometimes they did collaborate, sometimes they didn't, it depends on the historical moment."

Here I asked Yázhi: I imagined that Atlantis was like the reptiles, and the Elohi as more positive in this sense. I did not imagine that they were in any way collaborating or interacting with the reptiles of Atlantis.

And Yázhi said: "Yes, or imagine a city with many races with reptiles in the Regional Government. Yes, more like positives."

So, we ask her: When did the Elohi come to Earth?

And Yázhi told us: "Elohi, between the year 10,000 to about 1,000 BC, and almost to the present day in an orbital form without bases. They are not currently in Earth orbit ."

LOS HOMO CAPENSIS

- Originarios de Asterope M45.
- Elohi / NO Elohim.
- Mezcla híbrida con un conglomerado de otras razas.
- ADN no compatible con el humano.

Here she explained a little more about Homo Capensis or Elohi. “They are cataloged as Homo Capensis, and are mostly known on Earth as Elohi / not Elohim, originating mainly from the star Asterope. DNA not compatible with humans.”

Here we ask: Are the Elohi Lyrian?

And Yázhi told us: “They are a hybrid mixture with a conglomerate of other races. On Earth as such they are not genetically compatible. Although, contradicting the latter with altered DNA surely by the degradation process when exposed to a lower frequency of 3D there are indications that some families of the so-called human elite have Homo Capensis DNA.”

And about the Homo Capensis, as you know, many skulls of them have been found, we have information that we have already shared on the channel in the video of the Taygeta series, I think it is video 2, where we talk about the Taygetean brain, and simply remind you that Anéeka had commented to us.

“Homo Capensis have a unified brain, but a lot of corpus callosum, low density as I said, and this means that the bone plates of the skull differ from the human one. The main bony cranioencephalic cleft is missing. That is a unified brain landmark in contrast to the junction of three points, which are found on the upper wall of the human skull. Also, they contain more cranioencephalic fluid and brain support fibers which are the structures that hold the brain in place which makes them shock resistant as if they were wearing an integrated motorcycle helmet. So what I mean is, Homo Capensis in a competition of intellect have no advantage against someone with a round skull like a Lyrian. They are not the invincible great geniuses that they appear to be, it is just a variant more inclined towards protection. In the case of Homo Capensis, today the Elohi, are not directly linked to us. That is, they are distant relatives of Lyrians. As you may have noticed in space outside the Earth there are beings that range from exactly like humans, to others that look alike outside, but not inside, and all sorts of variants, from equal to very different and every point in between. I speak of thousands and thousands of races. So they fall on the scale of less similarity with humans.”

If you are interested in knowing more about the subject of the brain, you can watch this video that is very interesting. Besides, Anéeka also talks to us about the Ummites. It even makes some reference to the Urmah, too.

Estel-la.- So, here Yázhi continued to explain to us about these families with the DNA of the Homo Capensis.

And she told us: "This is partly why they believe they are the owners of the world since their genetic lineage goes as far back as Sumeria and there are two main points or populations of Homo Capensis on Earth. Peru concentration and Egypt concentration, but in the same species. Although, they are found elsewhere, such as in the Carpathian mountains. If you want to see evidence of aliens, it is the presence of Homo Capensis on Earth that has proven that the skulls were not elongated by splinting baby skulls. If this happened in the region, it is to make their children look like these beings. Although, blind earth science does not accept anything that does not interest or suit its controllers. And also, unborn fetuses with elongated skulls were found."

Here Cristina was commenting to Yázhi that we already knew these skulls and that apart from not presenting the typical joints of a human skull they were larger, but with more cubic centimeters than a human skull, which is impossible to achieve for the simple fact to lengthen it externally. You can't get it to increase in size that way.

So, here we were curious because Yázhi was telling us that these people maintain these genetics, we asked her: Is this related to one of Hitler's intentions to maintain the genetic purity of the Aryan race?

And Yázhi explained to us: "This part corresponds to another race in general. Maintaining the purity of the Aryan race is keeping the genes of Ireland pure, which is the starting point of today's civilization on Earth since Ireland was where the survivors of Atlantis arrived. So, they maintain genetically their etheric compatibility with being Organic Portals for reptilian souls."

So, this is what we had in store for you today. What do you think? Did you know this information?

Cristina.- A follower says: "Does anyone remember the series "Coneheads"? They were Homo Capensis."

Yes. I do remember this series. It is not very old, but it does seem as if they were inspired by Homo Capensis.

Estel·la.- I did not know that.

Cristina.- This series is very very old. Very interesting, says a follower.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "The Mayans also deformed their skulls to resemble their leaders." I think that in this area it was something quite common, or at least our science, our history presents it to us like this.

Cristina.- A follower says: "Akhenaten and Nefertiti, were they Homo Capensis?" Akhenaten, if I remember correctly, was Homo Capensi. Nefertiti, I think not.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "It is from this, my country, the door of Hayu Marca in Puno, Peru." Well, then you are in a beautiful country, because I'm going to tell you that I was in Peru traveling a few years ago and I loved it, I fell in love with everything I saw, and I only saw half the country, half to the south. It was amazing, I really liked it. I must say that I was also at the Gate of the Gods, the gate of Hayu Marca. It was very interesting, very interesting. I really liked all the space and in fact when I got there there was no one. Although, it is a very touristy place, quite advertised because it is known around the world, but I got there and there was no one. I knew these stories that we told you at the beginning, so I decided to do a meditation in front of the door, I sat there right in front of it and did a meditation to see what I feel or what energy is in the place. I must say that while I was meditating a being appeared to me, and suddenly I felt as if I was immersed in an energy that was surrounding me, and a being appeared that was like with a lot of light, I would say that it was like a man because it was very big, and as if he had a beard or hair so white that he invited me to go through the portal, and at that moment a part of me really wanted to try it, but the other part was very scared because I thought what if I cross the portal and my body is left there unattended? thinking what could happen. Then fear entered me, I blocked myself and I came out of meditation a little out of place, saying to myself: I am here... I am here. But the truth is that it was a very strong experience because I have rarely felt things like that and it was very interesting. That place definitely had a special energy. In fact, I think I have some images around here. Have if I find them...

Cristina.- A follower says: "In the Sierra de Peru there is a lot of UFO movement."

Estel-la.- Yes. The truth is that in Lake Titicaca. There are also many stories of natives who previously saw many lights in the water and that it was normal for them. It was also like a transit area, where ships were leaving. Very interesting, the truth is that all of Peru is very, very interesting.

Cristina.- A follower says: "A month ago more elongated skulls were found in the mountains in Peru."

I do think I saw something about this too.

Estel-la.- I'm going to show you the photos of the place for people who are not from there in Peru and have not been to see what it is like. This is when I was at the door, which is truly huge. And you can see that it is carved with perfection ... And, in fact ... you can't see the image, but in the small carved door there was a carved circle in the middle, like a hole, it was like a space towards the stone. Very big and imposing.

But what caught my attention of the place that surrounded this was the type of mountains because I kind of got there and it was a normal landscape, but then you found these mountains that were like rocks as if they came out of nowhere, like quite parallel to each other, one next to the other and it is as if they are placed there out of nowhere. I was walking there talking like above these mountains and with some stairs right in the middle.

This is how it looked. I do not know if you see these stones, it is like they do not fit at all with the background landscape that they look like more normal mountains then the water was also close. It seemed super curious to me. In addition, they had a reddish color and just as a curious fact I wanted to share this with you. The truth is that it was very beautiful, and it did have a very strong energy.

A follower says: "I am in Peru and I have had the opportunity to see and hold in my hands this type of elongated skull and it is evident that they are not human."

I must also say that while I was there I met a man who was an anthropologist or archaeologist, and he explained to me that they had discovered new elongated skulls, but that they did not want to make it official and that the government of Peru did not want to allow them to be studied. This man was showing me the images and he said to me: Yes, yes ... it has to be an extraterrestrial presence. And it showed me like I only had three fingers, and that they had found other bones nearby. Very interesting to see that the people there were very open to all this.

Cristina.- A follower says: They will be stone architectural structures already worn by air and time. Right. They are already very deteriorated, but even so with the amount of years that these structures have, the perfection of the cut is incredible. I also saw some ancient investigations that had looked to see how both the Hayu Marca gate and the Puerta del Sol had been cut. The blocks of the pyramids of Giza or whatever, and the only thing that resembled the cut a little bit was a laser and not even that. And it was explained by Yázhi and Anéeka that they are actually cut with compressed sound or water saws.

Estel-la.- The thing is, it reminded me, for people who are from Spain, from Catalonia to the mountain of Montserrat. That mountain is like that also, like it stands out because there is nothing like it around it, and this place reminded me of precisely this. In addition, in the last live we were with Robert, we were commenting that there were beings living under Montserrat because in these mountains where the door is and a Hayu Marca also, there were caves, and in one of them I was exploring, and yes there were also legends that you could enter one of these caves and that they were huge puzzles that were connected by immense surfaces. I did not dare to go in because it was super dark, but they did look like cavities, they are covered, but there is a lot of mystery there.

Cristina.- A follower says: "The hats of the pharaohs and that of the popes in the Vatican would hide those skulls."

Yes, many things that the elite use are symbols and refer to many things, but as Yázhi explained, the area of Egypt was also an area where there was a lot of Homo Capensis there. So it may be related, it's not that they will be wearing that hat, but that the skull was actually elongated.

A follower says: "Do you know where that portal goes?"

Well, if I remember correctly, Yázhi told us that it depends on the technology that is used, because as you already know that it has already been shared how the portals work, and how they are opened, in reality technology is needed to do it, and the same machine is that which graduates frequencies based on where you want to go. Simply what we understood here is that right where the door of Hayu Marca is, it is an important energy point on Earth, and that makes it easier for the portals to function well. So, it was simply a site that was used a lot as a portal, I suppose to go to different places where the races that used it wanted, and it remained there as a place that was a good place. Here, I don't know if it has something to do with it, but I imagine how when you have mobile coverage, you are in a place with little coverage and you are looking for the best point where there is coverage and there you are going to make calls or send the messages because you know that there it is not going to be interrupted, because I imagine that they are Ley lines when it comes to portals because it must be the same. But it's just my opinion here.

Estel-la.- A follower says: "Was Atlantean society reptilian or did I misunderstand?"

Greetings. In Atlantis there were many civilizations. It was a conglomeration of different races, but it is true that there was quite a bit of reptilian dominance.

Cristina.- Yes, the reptiles used to be in the governments, but later in the cities there were many races that each with their own interests interacting or collaborating together, or whatever.

Estel-la.- A follower says: "Could Yázhi psychically see where the portal is going without technology?"

Surely yes. I think I could have seen it too, but I didn't dare to go in. There are stories of people who are walking through the mountains and suddenly reach the past or the future and they have crossed one of these natural portals that is open in that area, and if you are compatible then you transfer through it. So, it can be done this way or it can be opened technologically and through the frequencies you decide where to go.

Cristina.- A follower says: "I think the Homo Capensis are from somewhere in the Pleiades."

Yes, Homo Capensis are Pleiadians, mainly from the star Asterope.

A follower says: "There are good and bad reptiles, watch out for them."

Yes, and as you know the Alpha Dracos that are in orbit are positive. And of course there are good reptiles. In addition, you already know that not all are reptiles, but that some are like mammals too, although they have a reptilian appearance. But sometimes when it is spoken in this way, it is simply referring to frequencies of the race. That is to say, that some reptilian races that we have here on Earth that are considered negative, already in itself the beings that incarnate in this species of race already have a specific frequency, that is why it is said that they are usually regressive or negative because generally that race frequency is low. Although there will be some that are not so or are not, but the race already has a tendency to that frequency.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "Girls, were these races also in Antarctica?"

About Antarctica, Anéeka told us that there was a reptile presence, a Maitre presence. I don't remember what other races she named now, but there were quite a few extraterrestrial races there with their DUMBS and their bases and it was a place, apart from living with the terrestrial military of regressive races.

Cristina.- But under Antarctica there are also the Vulcans, who as you know are a positive Intraterrestrial race, and the last thing we knew from Yázhi is that they had problems with reptiles.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "Karen Hudes, a former World Bank advisor, was already talking about Homo Capensis."

Yes, in fact, we recommend a video that we have on the channel called: "Illuminati Symbology and its Meaning," where we talk a little more about the Homo Capensis, the eye of Horus, and about the worship of the cube, and there is information about Karen Hudes.

Cristina.- A follower says: "And, also, Dracos there in Antarctica. There are many regressive things there."

A follower says: "The Rothschilds were Homo Capensis."

The Rothschilds are not Homo Capensis, but rather have Homo Capensis genes. That is to say, some families of the elite are crosses between what would be the human race, what we know as Homo Sapiens Sapiens, crossing with Homo Capensis. As Yázhi and Anéeka has also said that they are not compatible with human DNA, that is, there can be no descendants between us and them, but it may be that it was the fact that they were down here with 3D frequencies, and you already know that the DNA also changes, it may be that at some point there were crosses between both races, and hence there are some elite families that genetically conserve these Homo Capensis genes, but it is not that they are Homo Capensis, but that they are like descendants.

Question from a follower: "Are Homo Capensis regressive?"

Not at the beginning. They are positive, but Anéeka had told us that she did not share much what they did and that they had a slightly strange way of acting.

A follower says: "Girls, do you know if the keys that they hid to protect them have already been found or are they in a museum? Thanks, excellent direct. A hug."

Well, we haven't asked about this. We do not know.

Estel·la.- No, and in fact, you commented that there was talk of a gold disc for accessing the portal.

Cristina.- Yes, a key to access the portal.

Estel·la.- As always, the information reaches us as half and distorted. Possibly the key was not a disk, but a technological tool to gain access, but the truth is that we did not ask.

Cristina.- Yes. It seems to be like opening the portal, I think.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "Do Homo Capensis have seeds?"

We do not know if they have seeds here, on Earth or not, but what Yázhi told us is that they are not currently in Earth orbit. So, I imagine that if they are not present here it is because they do not have seeds.

Cristina.- A follower says: "Are the elongated crystal skulls found around the world theirs?"

We haven't asked about crystal skulls. Also an interesting question.

A follower says: "As far as I understand, this disc is in the depths of Lake Titicaca."

I do not know, but if it is there and it is something important, surely they have already confiscated it because they leave nothing behind.

A follower says: "About the Chupacabra?"

Well, we know that the Chupacabra is an inter-dimensional animal, and I think it looks like some kind of bear or something like that. Do you remember anything else Estel·la?

Estel·la.- Of the Chupacabra exactly, no. Because I do not like it. I remember more about the Yeti, for example, or about gargoyles, but not much about Chupa Cabras.

Cristina.- I don't remember much, but I think an inter-dimensional animal was good, but I don't know if it looked like a bear and I think it inhabited caves or something like that. Who has more information about the Chupacabra is Robert. He has asked about this.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "Is there life inside the Earth? Other civilizations? Greetings from Ecuador."

Cristina.- We have a small video pending to do. I guess we'll do it in the next few weeks, on information also from Yázhi about the interior of the Earth. Very interesting, too. It is not much, but there is very interesting data.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "They say it is similar to an anteater, the goat sucker, I imagine."

Cristina.- It could be.

Estel·la.- We will ask Robert. He did ask.

Cristina.- A follower says: "On the mountain of Montserrat there are very sporadic sightings."
Yes, it is what we talked about in the previous live where Robert was guest. Montserrat Mountain is something special, too.

Estel·la.- Do you have any more questions on this subject?

Cristina.- A follower says: "Estel·la, you had the key in your hand. They invited you to go through the portal."

Estel·la.- Yes, it's true. It is that I felt that I could cross it. I was very little, but I was scared. But I did feel that I was open, and that I was being invited in.

Cristina.- A follower says: There is talk about the solar disk that Aramu Muru carried, and that he fled through the portal to hide it. It is not the small key disk, but it is another. One of the many solar discs that exist. We have not investigated in depth about these "legends" that, we already know that part of the truth is hidden there. But it is possible that the most logical thing is that he will take it with him, if he really wanted to hide it.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "Is the Homo Capensis race similar or the same as it was in the Mayan civilization, as well as beings from the Maya star, or are they different?"

The Mayan civilization are from the Maya star. If the Homo Capensis and the Mayans coexisted or not at that time, I personally do not know. But I think they are not similar in race because they are from two different stars and different cultures.

Cristina.- Yes, the Maya of the Maya star, I think the Mollusca are also there in the Maya star, if I remember correctly. I think Maya and Atlas, too. But the Mayans do not have an elongated skull, they are like reddish skin, very like the Maya we know here, but I think a little bigger, taller.

Estel·la.- A follower says: "Piatiti, an underground city in the Peruvian jungle, sheltered many of the treasures of the Inca culture."

Cristina.- "A follower says: It is understood that the portal is open and depending on the frequency they will be able to cross."

Yes. I imagine that at the level of Being there is a strong energy that is prone to you being able to cross the portal, but I imagine that at the physical level, technology is required.

Estel·la.- Well, we're going to finish this live show. Thank you very much to all. Thanks for your participation and questions and we will see each other
